

New Haven Legal Assistance Association seeks Deputy Director

New Haven Legal Assistance Association, Inc. (NHLAA) is a nonprofit organization that was incorporated in 1964 to "secure justice for and to protect the rights of those residents of New Haven County unable to engage legal counsel." We are an office of lawyers and paralegals, specializing in family, benefits, housing, health, immigration, and child law. Our mission is to provide high-quality free legal services to individuals, families, and groups in the greater New Haven area, including the lower Naugatuck Valley, who are unable to obtain legal services because of limited income, age, disability, discrimination and other barriers.

The Deputy Director will:

- Assist in the financial, administrative, personnel and programmatic management of the organization.
- Represent NHLAA in the local, state and national legal communities.
- Carry an approximate caseload of 5-10% of time.

Qualifications:

- J. D. degree required.
- Connecticut Bar Admission required.
- Demonstrated commitment to providing access to legal representation for low income people.
- Strong written and oral communications skills.
- Effective at motivating staff and furthering their professional development.
- Excellent interpersonal and team-building skills.
- Management or human resources experience.
- Experience in fundraising or grant writing.

Closing Date: February 3, 2017

Salary: Commensurate with experience.
